Public Input Sought for State Historic Preservation Plan Revision

SACRAMENTO: The Office of Historic Preservation invites public involvement in developing the vision, issues, and goals of the State Historic Preservation Plan 2006-2010.

The State Plan identifies current and emerging historic preservation issues throughout the state as well as establishes preservation goals and objectives; the plan was most recently updated in 2000.

The public can be involved by:

- Reviewing the 1997 Plan and 2000 Update documents.
- Completing the State Plan Issues and Priority Survey, available through June 30th.
- E-mailing questions or comments to the Office of Historic Preservation Plan Update Committee.
- Participating in one of the public hearings on the State Plan. Dates and locations of the meeting will be posted on the State Plan Calendar and Hearing Schedule.
